1. What are the primary components of a computer system?

2. Define the terms "hardware" and "software".

3. What is the function of an operating system, and can you name a few examples?

4. Explain the difference between volatile and non-volatile memory with examples.